Candle Urns

Lighting a candle is known for bringing peace and healing while providing a symbolic way of remembering your loved one. The candle urns feature the Mandala pattern. In some cultures the symbolism of the mandala pattern refers to the cosmos or universe in a metaphysical sense.

Our loved ones ashes may still be with us but their spirit can be set free by the act of lighting the candle in remembrance.

All candle urns are made from solid brass with a beautiful enamel and nickel finish >

Candle Urns

Lighting a candle to remember your loved one can help with the healing process. The Life Cycle Urns range of candle urns have been designed to hold a tea-light candle. Ashes are loaded by unscrewing the lid on top.
